Vivre – The New Girl's Night In (Brand Name) is dedicated to educating and empowering women regarding their reproductive health. Vivre Exclusively Feminine and Exceptionally Divine, LLC will focus on building confidence and self-efficacy by building knowledge and normalizing conversations around certain topics. The reason it is the new girl's night in is to make note of the fact that these are discussions that take place every day amongst friends. It is for these reasons that I decided to shed light on our lives and honor women through all phases from menstrual cycle to menopause.

Vivre which means live in French accomplishes this task by using a variety of methods. First, as a Registered Nurse and a Nursing Professor I have used my education to create educational materials/games addressing a variety of topics. The following are the first of many:

#MissRed Menstrual Cycle Game – Is a flashcard card game designed to be a gift for that special time in a girl's life. Moms, aunts, grand-mothers and youth group leaders should purchase this as a souvenir. Packaged in a beautiful box #MissRed is small and discreet. It focuses on teaching individuals the correct anatomical names and the 28 - day menstrual - cycle process. Available Now!

Mommy Charades – Is a twist to a family classic. Invite the moms' in your life and prepare to act like a kid again. Ever wonder what your toddler is thinking when they take off running? Well here is your chance to put yourself in your favorite little munchkins shoes. The best part is that you can share how you would handle every situation after acting out the scenario as the child. The game should be called the ultimate stress release because that is exactly what will happen when you realize that every parent has their own experiences. Available Now!

Sassy Verve – STD Board Game. Coming Soon!

Educational videos available for purchase

www.vivrethenewgirlsnightin.com; topics include Fibroids, Labs and Menstrual Cycle. New topics added monthly.

Second, Vivre Consultants will launch this summer. The objective of the Vivre Consultant is to host a variety of parties that will entertain, educate and provide products. Parties include but are not limited to #MissRed party, Holy Stirrups party (Yes, you read that correctly!) and Infertility Now What?! Party to name a few. Vivre Consultants are registered nurses. If you are a registered nurse and looking to join me in this venture please feel free to contact us 508-272-2661 or contact@vivrethenewgirlsnightin.com. Finally, I have decided to share my story and chronicle my pursuit to become an entrepreneur. Visit the website www.vivrethenewgirlsnightin.com and subscribe to the blog for your updates, tips and insights to starting a business.

Please follow my journey and labor of love!
